

Your gift to the "grand" generation, of living life with dignity and purpose is cherished by all the seniors who attend the JRC Adult Day Center.

There can be no greater gift to give a child of the JRC Learning Center than the gift of early education, preparing them for kindergarten and beyond and a life full of possibilities.

Give your best gift yet

There is still time to make a tax-deductible donation

Please consider making your end-of-year donation to JRC. You will receive an email receipt for your donation.

You can help ensure that our seniors remain independent as long as possible, our children continue to receive important early education, and the seniors and children of JRC, like John and Sophia (shown above), continue to develop the intergenerational connections they enjoy so much!
